

The company has a team of engineers and technicians based in Medellín, from where we provide coverage and rapid response to all our clients.

- Assembly of electrical and electro-pneumatic control cabinets.
- Consulting for configuration, calibration, installation, and commissioning of instrumentation and automation equipment.
- Basic and detailed engineering for industrial automation, instrumentation, and pneumatics projects.
- Development of new projects and modernizations, including motion control, speed variation, and position control with servo motors.
- Development of supervision systems projects, including data acquisition and transmission.
- Commissioning of all our developments in automation, instrumentation, and pneumatics.
- Specialized developments tailored to the specific needs of our clients.